SENATE.

CAROLINA.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 19, 1873. Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, presented a petition from citizens of his county, praying an act to prevent the sale of ardent spirits within one mile of Pea-cock's Store in said county. Mr. Dunham, from the committee on Calendar and Adjournment, reported that in the opinion of the Joint committee, the Legislature could adjourn on Monday, 3d of March.

SPECIAL ORDER. Bill providing for the biennial elec-tion of officers of the General Assembly, and prescribing their respective duties and fixing the compensation for the same, was taken up.
Mr. Love offered an amendment striking out the one hundred dollars extra compensation allowed the principal clerk for superintending the publication of the journals and indexing the Mr. Dunham objected to the amendment and urged that the work was worth the money. The amendment was adopted. Messrs. Welch and Dunham offered anumber of amendments perfecting the phraseology of the bill. Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, moved to strike out the 12th section authorizing the employment of extra clerks. Mr. Todd moved to lay the bill on the table. Carried.

Mr. Powell moved to take up the resolution introduced by Mr Cowles to print the muster rolls of the war of 1812, there being but one copy known to be in existence. The roll contains North Carolina, and is important under the late pension act of Congress in establishing the claims of survivors of the war and widows of deceased soldiers. Passed.

The bill to promote the agricultural interests of the State was resumed. Mr. Norwood, the introducer of the original bill, offered a substitute, which provides that the Saperintendent of Education shall prepare such lessons for pupils in public schools as will teach them the fundamental principles of agriculture. On motion of Mr. Todd, the bill was referred to the Committee on Immigration, Mr. Morehead, Chairman of the convicts. that Committee, having given notice that this committee would report a and was sent to the House. bill in a few days covering the object of Senator Norwood's bill.
